INDEX

This index is for Volume Fourteen of The Genealogical Helper -- March, June, September and December, 1960. The first figures indicate page numbers: the figure following the hyphen indicates the particular column on that page. Thus Ashwith 228-2 indicates that Ashwith will be found on page 228 column two.

Since all names appear in alphabetic order in the Directory of Genealogists and the Genealogists' Exchange, pages 67 to 196 inclusive, they do not appear in this index.

The various issues of Volumn Fourteen (1960) contain the following pages. March 1 to 32; June 33 to 64; September 65 to 212; December 213 to 244.

Genealogical Book Company Serves Many Patrons

While in Washington, D. C., last summer, the owner and operator of THE EVERTON PUBLISHERS had the privilege to become quite well acquainted with Mr. Jules Chodak, owner of the wellknown Baltimore concern, SOUTHERN BOOK COMPANY, now doing business under the name of GENEALOGICAL BOOK COMPANY.

Mr. Chodak came into the book business about twenty-five years ago as a book-scout, one who searches out rare books and sells them to dealers. Soon, however, he began to find his own customers. That was the beginning of a mail order business now employing eight persons besides many active agents. It has almost ten thousand customers on its mailing list.

At first Mr. Chodak dealt in books of all types. It didn't take him long to discover the tremendous interest in books on America and particularly on the South. This lead to the firm name SOUTHERN BOOK COMPANY, under which he operated for nearly twenty years, although dealing with books of all aspects and regions of America.

The conversation had hardly begun when it was only natural to ask when Mr. Chodak became interested in genealogical books.

"It was about ten years ago that I began to notice the great demand for genealogical books," said Mr. Chodak. "Actually we began dealing exclusively in genealogy books as a direct result of pressure. All I did was to follow the law of demand. At one time supply was not much of a problem, but with a rapidly increasing demand, supply has begun to taper off the prices have increased drastically. Books that were plentiful and selling for just an average price not so long ago have now become rare books selling at from five to ten times their former value."

Mr. Chodak explained that his firm now has about five thousand individual titles of books, some three or four thousand manuscripts, and perhaps a hundred or so filing cabinets of lineage books. In addition there are thousands of volumes of the firm's reprints and other books in quantity.

Company agents in various parts of the world are constantly on the alert for available genealogical books. In this way the company has been able to stock large supplies of British records in the past, but, with interest in genealogy growing in England just as fast or faster than in American, it is difficult to maintain the supply.

When the defunct Institute of American Genealogy in Chicago was liquidated some three years ago, Mr. Chodak's bid gave him possession of its tremendous holdings of books, periodicals, manuscripts and lineage records. Among these were about 17,000 books and manuscripts, and more than one hundred four drawer filing cabinets of family records.

Of great value to genealogists who do their own reserach was Mr. Chodak's decision some years ago to reprint several valuable books out of print for many decades. Plans are under way, it is understood, to reprint many more scarce books with much information.

Finally, Mr. Chodak explained that although he has a personnel of eight workers it is almost impossible for them to keep abreast of the many inquiries that come for information concerning this or that book.

We know that all researchers have their problems, and many of them in fact. But we should not forget that in the same way the book dealer has his problems - perhaps more numerous - and some times it is impossible for him to comply with the many requests that come to him.

Irish and Scotch-Irish Help Soon Available

The announcement on the back page of this issue should be welcome news to persons who have Irish or Scotch-Irish ancestors.

Mrs. Margaret Falley's publication will fill a long felt want for information regarding the records of Ireland of genealogical value. This has been one of the most difficult fields for researchers for many years and any help is welcomed. Our thanks and sincere wishes for success go to Mrs. Falley for the tremendous lift she is about to give the Irish researchers.

Family Groups Should Register In Next Issue

The time is at hand when the officers of all family organizations should register the name of their association, its officers and their addresses for publication in the March issue of THE GENEALOGICAL HELPER. This is the only source from which researchers can keep abreast with the constantly changing personnel of these organizations.

This service was inaugurated with the March 1956 issue.

There is no vanity or self-glorification attached to this idea. These names are not published to bestow any honor to or adoration of any of the organizations or its officers. They are published to notify all individuals of similar surnames of the existance of the organization so that they can avail themselves of whatever histories or genealogical information the organization may have. Most families throughout the nation have members living in various states. Some of them have been out-of-contact with the rest of the family members so long that they know little or nothing about them. Many of these family associations have brought together long-lost branches of the family tree, and thus made the family histories and genealogies more complete.

To defray in a small part the expenses incident to the publication of information concerning these worth-while organizations the same small registration fee as first set is charged. To register each family organization a fee of 50 cents is set. This will include the name and address of the organization and the name and address of the family genealogist. For each additional name and address, such as the president, vice president, and/or secretary, an extra 25 cents will be charged. For instance, the names and addresses of the organization, the family genealogist, the president and the secretary would be one dollar.

A form to assist you in registering your organization and officers is printed in this issue. Forms will also be mailed to all persons on our mailing list each year.

REGISTER YOUR FAMILY ORGANIZATION NOW
February 1st is the deadline.
